Recently reached us these CD, which appeared already in September 2000. Annelle Travis, so their full name was completely unknown to us up to this time. However one should note this name, if one likes on good, modern however that traditional obligated Country Music. This work in Nashville and as producers was taken up has responsibility George Clinton, which already worked with Alabama, Reba Mc Entire, Tracy Lawrence and K.T. Oslin, in order to call only some. Like that already approximately the direction is given, which hits these CD von Annelle. Annelle grew on in Kentucky, the Bluegrassstate and also this origin is on that CD not to be denied, if directly one looks for Bluegrass Music in vain.

A modern topic is taken up directly with the first Song, if Annelle in "email Everyday" sings from hope, to find over the InterNet the partner for the life. This Song is quick and modern. Calmly and of a projecting seed piano is certainly the second Song "emergency Even Crying", a mad Ballade over the feelings after a separation. It becomes modern and somewhat more quickly then again with "' Til He Did", before with "The Night The Moon Turned Blue" again a mad Ballade follows itself busily with the feelings, if one breaks apparently perfect relationship. Here Annelle can play correctly with its bright strong voice. "Friends & Lovers" is a beautiful Lovesongs in that the voices of Annelle and its Duetpartner Brent Ford perfectly harmonieren. Both hauchen this Song with their sensitive singing lives. It remains relatively calm also with "fishing rod in Your of arm". A modern Ballade with beautiful text. Coined/shaped of a Fiddle and a e-guitar quickly far with "You CAN Have Him" is. In this Song a woman continues to give her unfaithful partner to the next woman not to warn without it of it. "Looking For A Stranger" is modern the fastest Song that CD Rockig, with knackigen guitars comes along it. It quickly and modern continues also with "If The Music's Any Faster". The e-guitars dominate although somewhat more moderately also here. Same applies also to the last Song "GET Lazy With You". Momentum-fully and modern this Song, after scarcely 32 minutes a good, locks modern Country CD, with which however the traditional influences sound through again and again.

Who stands for at the beginning of the 90ger on the Country Music those, years was successful, by this work will not be disappointed. Since in the local specialized trade will be only difficult probably to find the CD, a view is worth in the InterNet. On the homepage von Annelle can be ordered the CD problem-free.
